Middle School Promotion Requirements

Middle school students must pass language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies to meet annual promotion requirements.

To be promoted to high school, middle school students must successfully complete three middle school or higher level courses in language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies, including one civics education course; and complete a personalized academic and career plan.

Middle School Course Grade Criteria

Middle school courses require a district semester exam or a state End of Course (EOC) exam, except for Career Research and Decision Making and specialized electives. EOC exams are required for M/J Civics and the following high school credit courses: Algebra 1, Geometry, Biology, and U.S. History, or their equivalent. District exams are weighted at 25% of the semester grade; EOC exams are weighted at 30%.

To pass a middle school semester course, students must:

- earn a minimum of two quality points (.5 or higher weighted semester average) and pass at least one of the quarter grades; or
- score a B or higher on the semester exam grade (refer to the grade calculation chart).

To pass a middle school semester course that does not require an exam, students must earn a minimum of two quality points.

The grade enhancement policy for high school credit courses taken prior to grade 9, allows students to replace a grade of C or below with a grade of C or higher, earned subsequently in the same or comparable course. The replaced grade is excluded in the cumulative, unweighted state GPA required for graduation, but is included in the cumulative, weighted district GPA used to determine rank in class.

The Extended Learning Program (ELP) provides additional opportunities for students to meet course requirements. Contact your child's school for program details.

The Student Progression Plan available on the district's website provides additional information related to academic requirements and programs.
